

TRANSIT

A transit visa does not permit you to enter Ireland for any purpose. It only permits you to transit through Ireland (airport, seaport) in order to reach your destination in another state.

If the intention is to leave the port at any stage you must apply for a short stay visa in the normal way.

You must have the relevant visa for your country of destination in your passport before applying for an Irish transit visa.

Your visa application must be completed online beforehand at the following link:

www.irishimmigration.ie
