The second round of the Working Holiday Programme 2026 will open on the 30th of September 2026. The second round has a limit of 100 applicants and only the applicants who email their application between 9 and 10am (Chilean time) on the 30th of September 2026 will be considered.

The Ireland-Chile Working Holiday Agreement allows up to 200 young Chilean applicants (aged between 18 and 30 , both inclusive) annually to take extended holidays in Ireland for up to a year, and to take employment as an incidental aspect of this stay. The aim of the scheme is to introduce young Chileans to the people, culture and landscape of Ireland and to allow them to work and study English or Irish there. Participants will have one year from date of issue of the authorization to enter Ireland. A similar scheme operates from Ireland to Chile.

FAQ

CONTACT US

You must follow the below procedures in order to submit your application to a working holiday authorisation:

1

Email us your application to the WHA 2026: There are 200 vacancies available for Chileans to participate in two rounds of this programme. The second round will be launched for the WHA 2026 program from 9 to 10 am (Chile time) on the 30th of September 2026.

In order to ensure that all applicants are treated fairly and in an organized manner, you must send only one email expressing your interest in participating to the following address: IRISHWHCHILE@VFSGLOBAL.COM. (Applicants who send multiple emails or submit their details from multiple email accounts will be disqualified.) The 100 candidates for this round will be randomly selected from the pool of emails received during that one-hour period and will be assigned an appointment to apply for the Working Holiday Programme.

Important: In order for your email to be considered, it must include the following mandatory personal information:

Family Name, First Names, RUN, Date and Place of Birth (as shown on the passport), Male/Female, Passport Number, Valid Until (passport expiry date), Current Address, Telephone, and Email Address. Applications that do not include all the required information may not be considered for the selection process. You will find a template for the required information at the end of this document also.

2

Attend the assigned appointment date and time: We will allocate an appointment date and time for you to submit your Working Holiday (WH) authorization application at our Application Centre. Please save the date and time assigned to you. Your appointment is personal and non-transferable; therefore, it cannot be rescheduled, modified, or attended by a third party on your behalf. If you fail to attend your appointment, your place will be released and allocated to another applicant.

3

Return of the decision envelope: The decision envelope with the authorization letter will be returned to you by a secured courier from VFS Office.
